

Stevens Point's Third Downtown Mural "The Old Post Office"

Our third mural project brought "The Old Post Office" back to life. The beautiful marble building originally stood on the corner of Strongs Ave. and Main St. but was torn down in the late 1960s. The mural, located on the east wall of the new Post Office building on the corner of Main St. and Smith St. downtown, was completed in July of 2008 by muralist Kelly Meredith. The faces of the people on the mural are the faces of actual Stevens Point residents, both past and present, and were copied from photos provided by their friends and family members. Funds raised from the sale of "faces" on the mural helped pay for the project.
