Nays: None. Motion carried.

24. Public hearing - Installation of Curb and Gutter - Frontenac Avenue from Center Street to Oak Street, College Avenue to Prais Street, Stanley Street to Jordan Lane.

The public hearing was declared open by the Mayor.

Albert Walkush, 224 E. Cedar Street, represents the Stevens Point Area Catholic Cemetery Association. Mr. Walkush stated the Association objects to the assessment. He said they are a nonprofit entity with only one salaried employee. Mr. Walkush said their budget is already stretched and asked that the assessment be spread over a period of time.

Lex Bernstein, 900 Frontenac Avenue, asked if a walkway will be put in between the new curb and the sidewalk.

Director Euclide said it is not included in the project. The Director noted the homeowner can put one in at their expense.

As no one further wished to speak, the Mayor declared the public hearing closed.

25. Final Resolution on the above.

Ald. Stroik asked what the figure is for the cemetery assessment.

The Cemetery Association had the amount of the assessment as $5,628.70.

Ald. Wiza said the Association is allowed to pay the assessment over 5 or 10 years.

Ald. Stroik asked what the past practice is regarding projects for nonprofit organizations.

City Attorney Molepske said some have paid in the past and some have not.

Ald. Stroik asked if the $5,628.70 were waived, where in the budget would this money come from.

Comptroller/Treasurer Schlice said it would be absorbed within the operating expenses of the City.

Mayor Halverson said if the fee is waived, it will come directly out of the tax dollars of the citizens of Stevens Point.

Ald. Trzebiatowski asked what would need to be done to exempt the cemetery from their financial obligation.

City Attorney Molepske said they would not be exempt. He said the Council must make the decision if all or part of the assessment should be levied to the Cemetery Association.

Ald. Myers moved, Ald. Moore seconded, to approve the installation of curb and gutter as proposed with the exception to cut the assessment for the cemetery by 50% with 10 years to pay for the assessment with no interest associated with the payments.

Roll Call: Ayes: Ald. Myers, Walther, Hanson, Wiza, Slowinski, Molski, Stroik, Brooks, Moore.

Ald. Walther noted the Downtown Business Association plans to contribute $2,500 for the trolley project and the City's share will be less than $2,500. The alderman stated the grant is to be used strictly for transportation related projects. He feels this is an outstanding opportunity for the Transportation Department to work with the downtown. The alderman said the trolley will occasionally be used on a fixed route.

Ald. Wiza said he is not 100% sold on this project. The alderman said the grant could have been used for something more practical such as converting the buses to bio-diesel fuel.

Ald. Walther pointed out that the remaining local share will be taken out of the transportation promotional fund.

Roll Call: Ayes: Ald. Moore, Brooks, Stroik, Molski, Trzebiatowski, Slowinski, Heart, Wiza, Hanson, Walther, Myers.
